✕ Colosseum and Roman Forum Tour

Interests: history, archaeology, architecture

A three-hour tour dedicated to the discovery of the symbols of Rome's Golden Age: Colosseum and the Forum. The small size of the group will allow you to fully enjoy the experience of stepping back to the time when Rome was the center of the known world and its Emperors could overthrow the fate of lands and people with one gesture. Your driver will pick you up at your hotel between 2.30 and 2.45 pm and take you to the foot of the Colosseum, where your guide will be waiting to introduce you to one of the greatest monuments ever built. The games and the fights which took place in the arena were more than combats: they were the way the Emperors had to gain consent, to hold the power, and also to avoid troubles by diverting people's attention from political and economic issues. Once the visit to the Colosseum is over, you will continue to the Forum, the center of Rome's political life from the very beginning of its foundation. Here people gathered to do business, to appeal the courts, to cheer politicians or to question them, or simply hung around waiting for time to pass. The remains of the most noteworthy buildings are still visible today, and your guide will be delighted to help them spring to life before your eyes.

✕ Marco Carpinet Winery, Anagni and Pileum Winery

Interests: wine, culture

No "unsung" destination in Italy deserves to be discovered more than the Latium countryside. Less known than its Tuscan counterpart and somewhat overshadowed by the vicinity of the Eternal City, this area has plenty of character and charming gentle hills dedicated to viticulture since the dawn of times. Today, with your English-speaking driving escort you will discover the landscape, it's history and most of all, its wines. After departing from Rome, your first stop will be the 3000-year-old village of Cori, where you will visit the Carpineti winery, with its flagship Nero Buono grape variety, which is very difficult to cultivate and is grown exclusively in this area. The Carpineti family, with admirable foresight and perseverance, chose to follow the path of biodynamic farming, in a successful attempt to bottle the real essence of all good wines: harmony with nature and affinity to the human soul. After the winery visit, you will continue on to Anagni, a perfectly preserved medieval town known as “the city of Popes” because it is the birthplace of four Popes. Finally, after exploring Anagni, you will reach your final destination of the day, a little winery in Piglio, where a few years ago, a group of friends joined efforts in the organic farming of the ancient and rare Cesanese grape variety that grows alongside olive and chestnut orchards in poor clay soils, giving birth to a full-bodied wine.

✕ Pompeii & Vesuvius Excursion

Interests: archaeology, history, nature

Depart from Rome to Pompeii, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most renowned attractions in Italy, drawing travelers from across the world each year to explore its ruins. When Mt Vesuvius erupted in 79 AD, Pompeii was buried under lava, ash, and pumice and lay forgotten for more than a thousand years. Since its accidental rediscovery in 1748, excavations have provided an extraordinarily detailed insight into the life of a city at the height of the Roman Empire. Your guide will take you slowly through some of the ancient streets where you will see the Baths, Forums and Villas built by the prosperous Romans. Marvel at the fabulously preserved Frescos that once adorned the walls and floors of the Villas. After the exploration of Pompeii, you will continue on to Mt. Vesuvius. It is the only active volcano on the mainland of Europe. The slopes were once covered with lush vineyards and forests and provided an innocent looking backdrop for the bustling town below. The bus will take you to within nearly 1,000 yards of the top of Vesuvius and from here you can walk to the very top and admire the splendid panoramic views across the bay of Naples.
