

Dine in Algarve 2023

Michelin Star:

- Vila Joya The 5-star Vila Joya boasts a two Michelin Star Restaurant with incredible view to the Atlantic Ocean and a magnificent garden. The restaurant is known for the Mediterranean seafood with high-quality French haute cuisine, using fresh local ingredients from the Algarve markets.
- Ocean Holder of two Michelin Stars, Ocean offers an exceptional gourmet experience. The cuisine is frequently inspired by the ocean, using locally grown fruits and vegetables, locally caught fish and organic meat in a calm, elegant and relaxed ambience.

Fine Dining:

- Al Quimia will surprise you with its gastronomic creativity, typical regional products and the proximity to the sea as inspiration. The flavors, the contemporary design and a focus on luxurious decorative detail will break any sensorial boundaries, especially combined with an excellent list of wines.
- CASA VELHA A gastronomic journey awaits you in Casa Velha, inspired from Algarve and Portuguese cuisine. Discover authentic traditional flavors, created by regional products.

Casual Dining:

- Gigi Praia Gigi's is the ultimate lunch experience. Fresh fish and shellfish selected at dawn from the Quarteira Market, vegetables sourced from neighboring farms, and wines chosen from the vineyards by Gigi himself.
- REI DAS PRAIAS Located in a beautiful small beach and it is known for its fresh seafood, Mediterranean cuisine, list of wines and the great view.
- Arte Náutica is a stylish beach restaurant right on the golden expanse of Armação de Pêra beach, with chic nautical vibe. It offers an excellent selection of seafood, Portuguese, and international dishes. The wine list also includes some of the acclaimed wine produced on the estate. The stunning views and sunsets are the perfect setting for either lunch or dinner.

HAPPY TRAVELS!
