Description: This comprehensive private full-day tour of the West Bank will allow you to touch and feel ancient Egypt as you visit some of the most renowned sites such as the amazing Valley of the Kings, the grandiose Queen Hatshepsut Temple, and the fabulous Valley of the Queens. The Valley of the Kings was the royal cemetery for 62 Pharaohs. It is a destination filled with myths and legends, where sentries were placed at the entrance of the Valley, as well as along the top of the hills, in the hopes of discouraging tomb robbers. Hatshepsut's temple is the most renowned masterpiece of western landscape architecture. Carved into a living rock the temple was known as Djoser-Djeseru 'Holiest of the Holy' to the Ancient Egyptians and is now known as Deir el-Bahri, 'Monastery of the North' after the Coptic monastery which used the site from the 5th century to the 19th century AD. Last but not least, the Valley of the Queens is an isolated cemetery, at the southern part of the vast necropolis of Thebes, on the west bank of Luxor and it contains about 70 tombs, mainly belonging to Queens, Princesses, Princes, and Nobles, who lived during the XIX and XX Dynasties.
