Cruise: 4 Day / 3 Night Nebu from Aswan to Luxor

Description: Day 1

On your first day, you will board the boat at noon and unpack in your cabin before heading out for your first tour. Accompanied by your guide, you will board a motorboat to reach the Philae Temple which was relocated to another island to save the temple from the flooding of the Nile River founded 7th or 6th century BC. Your next destination will be the Aswan High Dam, constructed between 1960 -1970. You will continue your day of exploration with a traditional felucca. Upon your return to the ship, the captain will start the engines and commence sailing towards Kom Ombo. Here you will visit the magnificent temple overlooking the river Nile. This Ptolemaic Temple is the only double temple in Egypt shared by two gods, the crocodile-headed God Sobek, and the falcon-headed God Horus. The temple has two entrances, two courts, two colonnades, two Hypostyle halls, and two sanctuaries, one side for each god. In the evening enjoy a Galabeya Party after dinner. You are encouraged to shop and wear "The Galabeya", traditional Egyptian garments native to the Nile Valley. Overnight in Edfu. Day 2

After breakfast, you will visit the Temple of Horus, dedicated to the falcon God Horus, a central figure in ancient Egyptian mythology who served many functions such as God of Sun, War, and Protection. It's considered the best-preserved ancient temple and the second largest after the Karnak Temple. You will then sail to Esna and pass through the Esna Lock system, with lunch on board. As you cruise the Nile, tea, coffee and desserts are served while you relax and watch the world go by. Late afternoon you arrive in Luxor and visit its world-famous. Luxor temple is known as the world's best open-air museums nothing in the world compares to the size and magnificence of the monuments that have survived from ancient Thebes. Dinner and overnight in Luxor.

Day 3

After breakfast, you will visit the West Bank, including the Valley of the Kings. The ancient Egyptians built massive public monuments for their pharaohs. They also spent time creating concealed underground tombs full of treasures. The most famed collection of such intricate tombs, the Valley of the Kings, became a royal burial ground for pharaohs such as Tutankhamun, Seti I, and Ramses II, as well as queens, high priests, and other elites of the 18th, 19th, and 20th dynasties. Then see the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut at Deir El Bahari and the Colossi of Memnon. Before leaving the Valley of the Kings you will visit an Alabaster workshop (Cultural Discovery Series) to see how vases and statues are made in the traditional ancient styles. During this tour, you will also visit hotel El Moudirah for a quick orientation. After lunch on board, it is time to continue exploring with a tour of the Karnak Temple constructed from the beginning of the Middle Kingdom to the Greco Roman Kingdom. The second most visited historical site in Egypt, probably due to the 30 pharaohs who contributed to its creation. In certain places, some columns are over three stories tall and about 3000 years old. See the centuries-old city of pylons, hypostyle halls, colossal statues, shrines, and obelisks. Continue to Luxor temple the large Ancient Egyptian temple complex located on the east bank of the Nile River in the city today known as Luxor (ancient Thebes) and was constructed approximately 1400 BCE Day 4

After breakfast, disembarkation from your boat to start the site inspection of the Winter Palace & Sonesta Saint Georges hotels.
