Day 4 Private Best of Milos in One Day!

If you would like to see the very best Milos has to offer in one day, this is the right tour for you. All the best sites and experiences have been carefully selected to give you the most comprehensive introduction to this glorious Greek island. Your stops include the natural fjord-like wonder, Papafragkas cave, that once used to serve as a shelter for pirates, the stunning Sarakiniko beach where you will be able to spend 30 minutes to capture some memorable Instamoments, Plaka where you will immerse yourself in the local culture while walking through the traditional alleys, and the famous Catacombs - the location where the one and only Venus de Milo was found. You will also visit the ancient town of Klima and its theatre, dating back to 1100 BC followed by a stroll through Klima village which is one of the most colorful fishing villages in the country. Last but not least you will have enough time for a long relaxing swim at Palaiochori or Provatas beach where you will find plenty of vibrant beach bars and restaurants for a great lunch to replenish your energy.

Day 5 Private Sailing Cruise Round Milos (Adamas – Kleftiko)

After meeting the crew at Adamas port, you will board the spacious boat and start your private sailing adventure. Passing the coastline and leaving the Milos bay behind, you will sail past traditional fishing villages of Skinopi, Klima, Areti, and Fourkovouni adorned with picturesque little houses -called "sirmata"- built by the seaside. Then you will visit Arkoudes, lava rock complex which takes its name from its characteristic shape; the form of a bear. Opening the sails you will then head to the impressive Cape Vani. Your first swimming stop will be at the natural bay of Kalogries, where you will be able to dive into the transparent turquoise waters right from the yacht. Your next wow-stop is the colorful beach of Agios Ioannis that follows the stunning Sikia cave. Here you will be able to use the snorkeling equipment on board in order to fully enjoy this unique location. Your final stop is at the famous old pirate bay Kleftiko with its numerous caves and crystal clear. Dive in, snorkel or just bask in the magnificent view after which your delicious meal will be served onboard.

Day 7 Private Sifnos Island Tour

The tour starts from the monastery of Panagia Chrysopigi, the patron saint of the island, famous monastery both for its architecture and position. After visiting the monastery, on your way to Apollonia you will pass through the mountainous terraced landscape of Sifnos. Meanwhile the guide will be unraveling both the ancient and modern history of Sifnos going back 4000 years. It was from this small island that the world-famous Sifnian Treasure was presented to the temple of Apollo in Delphi, as gift to the god Apollo. Once you reach Apollonia, you will walk downhill its stone-paved pedestrian alleys, through the architecturally magnificently preserved town. After sightseeing of Apollonia, you will continue to Kastro village which is situated at the top of a rock with steep-sided cliffs and offers a panoramic view over the sea and the neighboring islands. Then the tour will continue to the village of Artemonas, a postcard-worthy traditional village seemingly unscathed by modern life.

Day 10
Private Traditional Village of Vothonas with Cooking Class

Immerse yourself in the traditions, aromas, and scenery of rural Santorini during this private tour. After meeting your driver, you will step away from the Caldera as you head towards Vothonas, a picturesque village built in a steep gorge that wows visitors with its unique architecture of cave houses built out of the volcanic rock. After you explore the village, you will embark on your culinary adventure. Roll up your sleeves, follow the instructions of your chef and start making your very own traditional Greek delicacies including fava beans, tomato fritters and meat or vegetarian main course. After all your dishes are completed, you will gather around the table and savor the fruits of your labor expertly paired with refreshing local wines.

Day 11
Private Sunset Cruise on Lagoon 380 or 400

There's no better way to explore the crystal blue seas and islands around Santorini than a private sunset catamaran cruise on an exclusive Lagoon 380 or 400. In the warm sunshine, you will sail past some of the best-known Santorini landmarks and beaches and experience the unique opportunity of sailing into the spectacular caldera. This luxury cruise includes an unforgettable barbeque paired with Santorini's finest wine and beverages whilst relaxing onboard. With the exclusive Lagoon 380 or 400 sail yacht, you could partake in one of the following activities: sail into the breathtaking caldera where you will be able to swim and have an incredible mud bath by the volcanic hot springs, visit both Red Beach and White Beach for swimming and snorkeling, sail leisurely past Thirassia, a small island formed in recent centuries by volcanic activity, enjoy a delicious barbecue on board before admiring the spectacular Santorini sunset.

PLEASE NOTE: Yachts and boats in Greece are prohibited by law to moor directly onto the beach. Our crews always try to reach the best points for swimming and snorkeling, as close to the beach as possible.
