Private Cruise to Poros & Spetses on Sealink 1 or 2 from Athens

Hop aboard your private rib boat to head to the island of Spetses with a visit to Poros along the way. Poros is one of the greenest islands of the Saronic Gulf, filled with lush aromatic Mediterranean greenery. Known for its beautiful beaches and impressive town, Poros is built in the shape of an amphitheater over two hills. Verdant pine forests, crystal clear beaches, a lively waterfront adorned with shops, cozy cafes and restaurants, a picturesque capital (it has been declared a protected settlement) and picturesque cobbled streets, as well as a wide selection of entertainment venues are the ingredients of this quiet, yet cosmopolitan, destination that attracts visitors of all ages.

From there, head to the island of Spetses for your disembarkation. Spetses is noted for its grand captain mansions, still bearing eloquent witness to the island's glorious past. You may opt to take a trip in a horse-drawn carriage and admire the mansions adorning the narrow-cobbled streets of the island.

Day 5

Private Cruise to Daskalio & Nafplio on Sealink 1 or 2 from Spetses

Start your day by heading to the tiny but stunning island of Daskalio and live your own castaway experience.

From there, continue to Nafplion, one of the most beautiful towns in the area of Argolis. Nafplio was the first capital of the newly born Greek state between 1823 and 1834. According to mythology, the town was founded by Naflios, the son of god Poseidon and the daughter of Danaus (Danaida) Anymone. The town history traces back to the prehistoric era when soldiers from here participated in the Argonautic expedition and the Trojan War alike. The town declined during the Roman times and flourished again during the Byzantine times. Frankish, Venetian and Turkish conquerors left their mark in the town and strongly influenced its culture, architecture and traditions during the centuries. Ancient walls, medieval castles, monuments and statues, Ottoman fountains and Venetian or neoclassical buildings mesmerize the visitor with their unique architecture and beauty.

At the end of your cruise, you will be dropped off at Amanzoe.
